ABOUT MOUNT CARMEL,
BUT YOUR SON FORGOT TO TELL YOU

A REFERENCE FOR STUDENTS & PARENTS NEW TO THE MOUNT CARMEL COMMUNITY

Mount Carmel High School
2015-16

Welcome

to the Mount Carmel Family!

(OR EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW
ABOUT MOUNT CARMEL,
BUT YOUR SON FORGOT TO TELL YOU)

If you are like many of our new families, you are overwhelmed with the prospect of sending your boy to high school. The following booklet was created several years ago by our Mothers' Club with the hope of helping new Mount Carmel families to easily find the information they need to make the most of their four-year journey at Mount Carmel. We are incredibly grateful to the Mothers' Club for preparing this information, and for all they do to support our community!

We hope that all parents will consider joining our Mothers' or Fathers' Club. There are plenty of opportunities for involvement, many of which are outlined in this booklet. You can also find more information on our website at www.mchs.org.

With 650 young men coming from over 200 grammar schools and over 100 zip codes, students attending Mount Carmel have the unique opportunity to make friends from all around the Chicago metropolitan area. By building these relationships, students grow in their cultural understanding and expand their social networks. The best way to make friends and feel at home in our community is through extra-curricular activities. We hope that you will take the time to explore opportunities for involvement.

Please note that this document is in not meant to replace your official student handbook. This is simply meant to be a quick-reference to keep on hand when you are looking for more information about the Mount Carmel experience.

Enjoy this four-year Mount Carmel journey with your son. He comes to Carmel as a Boy, struggles, works at it, and leaves as a Man -- and it passes all too quickly!

MISSION OF MOUNT CARMEL HIGH SCHOOL

The mission of Mount Carmel High School is to Live with Zeal for God, for Life, and for Learning. Our mission, and our desire to fulfill this mission is inspired by the inscription on the Carmelite shield found in the 1st Book of Kings, Ch 19: "Zelo Zelatus Sum Pro Domino Deo Exercituum," which has been translated literally as "I have been most zealous for the Lord, the God of Hosts," or more liberally as "I am filled with zeal for the Lord My God."

It is with zeal that we as a community seek to instill a love for God, a passion for all that life offers, and a commitment to learning in all of our young men. We accomplish our mission by committing to our Caravan Values.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Books: Students buy their textbooks online before school begins. To order books, go to the www.mchs.org homepage and click on the "Bookstore" link in the menu bar at the top of the page. Be sure that any used books bought from friends are the correct edition. You can compare the ISBN numbers with a list on the school's website. Also, make sure that your son's name is in/on every book (and calculator) before the first day of school.

Food Service: Country House, Mount Carmel's food service provider, has a variety of food to purchase for both breakfast and lunch every day. Students may also choose to bring a lunch from home. There are vending machines to purchase drinks and ice cream to supplement their lunches. Lunch cards are available for purchase.

Making the high school transition: Mount Carmel recognizes that the transition from junior high to high school can be a difficult one for some young men. Therefore, Mount Carmel has implemented a number of programs to help students through this time, including the Freshmen First Program. The Freshmen First Program helps students develop healthy study habits, get involved in Mount Carmel activities, and establish quality relationships with Mount Carmel faculty and staff. If you notice your son having a difficult time, contact the school. Counselors, teachers, Studium advisors, coaches and administrators all care and will provide any support they can to help you and your son.

Mission Collection: During Studium, there is an opportunity for students to contribute to the mission collection, which supports Carmelite ministries and charitable interests. Special mission collections will also take place throughout the year for causes designated by various Mount Carmel groups. Please encourage your son's charitable contribution to the collection.

Reporting Absences: Students are allowed a maximum of six absences per trimester. Parents are required to call the Attendance Office before 9:00 am (ext. 210) to report an absence each and every day their son is absent from school.

Retreat Program: Mount Carmel has a rich tradition of providing meaningful religious experiences for all students, deepening their understanding of living as Christian men in today's world. One of the milestones in a young man's Mount Carmel education comes during the freshman overnight retreat, when each student is given the traditional Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel to mark the beginning of this process. This scapular bonds generations of Carmel men together. Sophomore and Junior retreats take place during IMPACT weeks.

IMPACT Program: For the 2015-16 school year, students will engage in a holistic and integrated program of service-learning and reflection called IMPACT week. During IMPACT Weeks, students are not in regular classes, but rather work alongside their teachers and classmates during several days of service-learning and one day of recollection. This combination of education, service, and reflection provides an opportunity for building relationships during an experience that deepens students' appreciation of the Carmelite charism of prayer, community, and service. Students also have opportunities to go beyond Impact through our Service Club and summer service trips.

For more information, contact our Campus Minister, Mr. Greg Welch, by email at gwelch@mchs.org.

Senior Kairos Retreat: Senior year marks the arrival of another great Mount Carmel tradition, the four-day Kairos retreat. The Kairos retreat deepens the student's awareness of his faith as lived and experienced in the community.

Sport Coat: Your son will need a sport coat for days when Mass is celebrated at school as well as for dances at the school. Because boys can sometimes change sizes very quickly, many parents have learned to shop for bargain coats at thrift stores. Additionally, it is advised that you put your son's name inside his jacket. Sport coats abound at Mount Carmel and it is very difficult to sort through a pile of jackets to find the correct one without a name or other unique identifier!

Studium: Mount Carmel's Studium Program is intended to engage every student in strengthening the sense of "attachment" between the student and his school community, increasing student ownership of school activities and events, and encouraging every student to become actively involved and to develop leadership skills.

The structure of Studium divides the Mount Carmel student body into smaller communities, made up of approximately 25 students, representing every grade level. Each Mount Carmel student is assigned to the same Studium for his entire high school career. Every Studium has a faculty member who serves as an advisor and remains attached to that same Studium from year to year. Make sure you know who your son's Studium advisor is so you can contact them if the need arises.

Transportation: Mount Carmel has an excellent bus/van transportation system. Carpools are also a popular way to get to school. For more information on transportation, contact Mr. Rick Good at rgood@mchs.org.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Advent Action Campaign: During the Advent Season, all Mount Carmel students participate in the Advent Action Campaign through their Studiums. Each student is encouraged to donate cans of food, money, and at least one new toy. The Office of Mission Effectiveness facilitates the distribution of these collected goods and funds to charitable organizations in Chicago.

Caravan Alley Players: Each year the Caravan Alley Players typically perform three productions: a fall, winter, and spring production. In addition to actors, a crew is also needed for costumes, stage scenery and sound. Tell your son to listen for announcements about further details. You and your family should also make an attempt to come out and see one of the plays whether or not your son is involved. It is an enjoyable evening and presents a different side of the school!

Parent Portals: Be sure to register for and use your Parent Portal account. The portal gives you access to your son's information, most importantly his grades and discipline report. The gradebooks are "live" so you and your son will be able to see a grade immediately once it is entered. Remember, final exam grades and final trimester averages are never visible. You have to wait for report cards to see those grades. Because almost all information will be sent via email, keep your email information current with the school.

Communicating with Teachers: If you need to talk to a teacher outside of Conferences or if your son needs extra assistance or encouragement, contact his teacher. Often, the boys have problems identifying or admitting their academic problems and shortcomings. While talking with teachers, you can (and should) devise a plan to help your son together. Don't forget to tell your son to go see his teacher as soon as he is starting to have problems. Email is the fastest way to reach most teachers because they don't have a phone in their classroom. Give the teacher one school day to reply. If you don't get a response from the teacher, contact the Principal and let him know.

Freshman First: The Freshman First program is dedicated to helping every student thrive academically, socially, and emotionally so he may be fully prepared to excel in college and beyond. The Freshman First program provides the support young men need to make healthy decisions and to face every challenge they meet with strength and character. The key to this program is the personal contact among students and staff members. Students, as well as their parents, are always welcome to meet with counselors and the Freshman First moderator, Mr. Dan O'Connor. The counselors serve as liaisons among teachers and parents to ensure the best interest of each student is being met. Whether your son is struggling academically, with extra-curricular activities, or personally, we want to help him. If he is willing to put in the time and effort to succeed, we will give him access to the resources he needs to be a successful high school student and an even better young man.

Honors Banquet: The Honors Banquet in May is the highlight of the academic year. Attending the event with your son demonstrates your values and commitment to academic achievement. All students who earn a place on both the 1st and 2nd Trimester Honor Roll are invited, as well as any student who wins an individual academic award throughout the year. As quite a few students receive honors, plan to sit back and relax after your meal!

Late Starts: If your son tells you he is planning to sleep in an extra hour on a Wednesday, check the online calendar. If it says, "Late start," let him sleep. The faculty members have a meeting; buses run an hour later; and school begins at 9:05 a.m. If the late start is not listed on the calendar for that specific Wednesday, plan on waking up at the regular time.

Parent-Teacher Conferences: Parent-Teacher Conferences are a must. Even if your son has good grades, you are encouraged to meet and talk with the faculty who are central to his college preparatory experience. You should plan on spending sufficient time to visit all of your son's teachers. Plan ahead: conferences end "on time," even if there are parents waiting in line.

Tutoring/Homework Club: After school tutoring is available Monday through Thursday from 2:45 -3:30 p.m. in the Library. The Homework Club, which also meets Monday through Thursday immediately after school in Room 115, provides a quiet, supervised opportunity to begin homework after school.

Scholarships: There are numerous chances for students to win scholarship money for Mount Carmel by competing in essay contests in the spring. Some English teachers require students to enter at least one of the competitions.

Information about the various scholarships and eligibility requirements is posted to the Mount Carmel website. You might want to encourage your son to enter multiple essays. Find more information at www.mchs.org/scholarships.

School Masses: There are a number of school Masses throughout the year. See the student handbook for Mass dress code information. Interested students can become more involved in the music and singing for the Masses or as Eucharistic Ministers.

Walk-a-thon: Students are required to participate in this all-school fundraiser. Your son needs to solicit pledges for his walk along the lakefront. After the walk, the boys get a free lunch and are dismissed early.

CARAVAN ATHLETICS

Mount Carmel offers 17 different freshman, sophomore and varsity sports programs, Mount Carmel's athletic programs have a dual purpose: to enable a student to enjoy the sport and to achieve success through disciplined hard work and dedication.

All our athletic programs are run by competent and caring adults. Most coaches are hired as teachers first; they are concerned with your son's overall development in the classroom as well as on the athletic field. Encourage your son to try at least one sport. It could help him build discipline and character while he makes new friends and has fun. Make sure he knows how to wash his own uniform the first day of practice!

Contrary to popular belief, Mount Carmel does offer quite a few sports that are "no-cut" sports, meaning any student who wants to can participate! For more information, or to find the best sport for your son, contact Mr. Dan LaCount at dlaount@mchs.org.

GUIDE TO THE MOTHERS' CLUB & FATHERS' CLUB SPONSORED ACTIVITIES

The success of the Mount Carmel Mothers' Club depends on the support of all the women in our community. Please join the Mothers' Club for any (hopefully all) of the following events!

Meetings: There are five General Meetings scheduled each year for the Mothers' and Fathers' Clubs. The first is the "Welcome" to new parents which will take place in September. At the last meeting held in May, elections will be held for next year's Executive Board. In addition to these two meetings, general membership meetings are held periodically through the school year. Remember, all are welcome to every meeting!

Bunco Night: Whether BUNCO Night is a new or old tradition at Mount Carmel is a matter of some dispute. Apparently, BUNCO nights were held routinely years back – before most can remember. And now BUNCO Night has returned. This is the one night the ladies and whatever relatives and friends they can corral come together for purely unadulterated fun and games. The men have been kind enough to serve the bar, leaving the women free to roll the dice! The game is easy; no experience is required. Come out, meet new people, see old friends, and enjoy yourself!

Father/Son Dinner: This is an opportunity for students and their fathers to share food in community with fellow men of Carmel. Each year a guest speaker addresses the crowd; recent guest speakers include former Pittsburgh Steeler Matt Cushing '94 and former Northwestern University football standout Mike McGrew '92.

Fight Night: Catch the excitement and tradition of a by-gone era with Golden Glove-like amateur boxing matches among students in various weight classes. More than 30 students prepared for and participated in Mount Carmel's intramural boxing matches to qualify for the event last year.

Bake Sales (4 x year): Bake Sales present an easy way to help out. The boys (and faculty) love the goodies, and the proceeds help subsidize Teacher Appreciation lunches! Just bake something that can be sold in individual servings and send it to school with your son on the morning of the sale. You can tell him not to eat or share the goodies on the way, but some mothers have learned to bake extra as a precaution! By the way, if you don't bake, don't worry. The boys also love candy! Ask about some of their favorite varieties!

Teacher Appreciation Lunches (4 per year): During the year, each class provides a luncheon to show their appreciation to the faculty and staff of Mount Carmel. The first lunch is sponsored by Senior moms; the second, by Junior moms; and so forth. Please volunteer to send in one of your favorite dishes. When called, let the committee know if transportation is a problem. You may be able to drop the food off at someone else's home the night before or morning of the lunch.

Another way to help is through a monetary donation as the main food item is often purchased. The teachers at Mount Carmel are wonderful; this is just a small way to show them our appreciation!

Jingle & Mingle Market: In lieu of a meeting (and because it is a lot more fun than a meeting), the Mothers' Club sponsors a Jingle and Mingle Market in November to help you on your way to holiday shopping. The number and quality of crafters has increased throughout the years; and, beverages and food are available to make for an enjoyable evening. This is your chance to catch up with other moms and find some interesting and unique items for Christmas gifts and decorating. Additionally, many "Mount Carmel" items are available for purchase; feel free to bring your family and friends along.

Mother Son Dance: Another highlight of the Carmel tradition! Begin your holiday with this special evening, which includes an opportunity for a professional photograph of you and your "bean", a D.J. and dancing, a raffle including the acclaimed Alumni Mothers' chosen quilt for the year, and general fun. Don't let your son say he doesn't want to go. Everyone who comes has fun; those who come in later years regret the years they missed! Four years of photographs of this special night truly show your boy growing into a man. Note that each "couple" is asked to bring a new, wrapped toy (labeled boy or girl and the age) to donate to the Advent Action Campaign.

Home or Basket Parties: Mount Carmel moms open their homes for an afternoon or evening of relaxed socialization. Instead of bringing a hostess gift, bring an item that can be used in the Caravan Raffle baskets at the Fashion Show! If it is something you love, somebody else will love to win it! This is your chance to meet and visit with other moms and friends in a relaxed, home setting. Keep an eye out for dates, and be advised, some parties are co-ed and tend to be a big draw!

Mothers' & Fathers' Club Family Mass: Plan to join the Mothers'/Fathers' Clubs Family Mass. You'll have a chance to share a special liturgy with other MC families, and enjoy a light brunch afterwards. This event is a wonderful tradition for the whole family.

Fashion Show: The Fashion Show is the Mothers' Club "big event" and main fundraiser for the year. An incredible amount of work goes into this event resulting in a beautiful, enjoyable Sunday in the spring. Besides a gourmet lunch, enjoy the fun-filled fashion show, and try to win some of the myriad of prizes and baskets available that day. Gather your moms and sisters throw in a few friends, and have fun for the day. You're worth it!

Beverly Breast Cancer Walk: Encourage your son and your whole family to join you on a 5K Walk in the Beverly neighborhood to support breast cancer research and treatment. The Mothers' Club hosts a tent, makes t-shirts and walks together as a community. This is a great way to kick-off your Mothers' Day celebration.

Mothers' Day Mass: Plan ahead to come to a very special morning that includes student awards and a Mass dedicated to mothers. Although the Mass is for all moms, mothers of Seniors are specially recognized by their sons. Also, the new Mothers' Club officers are installed at this Mass. Sons are encouraged to take their moms to lunch following the Mass.

The Fathers' and Mothers' Clubs are an integral part of the Mount Carmel family. Every mom and dad is needed to ensure the success of events and the continued community of Mount Carmel.

You can find more information online at
